

Michigan has a program using a “school operatory” designed by a dental hygienist and her engineer neighbor. The space was created using PVC pipe and shower curtains. The PVC pipes come apart and are easily transportable in a bag.